CAN YOU GUESS.

Here's a 'Chance to Make
Ten Dollars Easy.

All You Have to Do Is to Pick the Winners in the Coming
Primary.

Just for the interest attached to a guessing contest and to put a little more interest into the coming campaign for County officers, The News will give its readers a chance to make ten dollars and have a little fun at guessing on the side.

To the person making the first nearest correct guess of the winners in the Democratic Primary Election which will be held in this county on Saturday, June 1st, 1901, The News will present a ten dollar gold piece. The conditions of the contest are simple. Old subscribers and new subscribers who pay $2 on their subscriptions will each be entitled to a guess, and to as many guesses as they pay year's subscription. If no one guesses correctly, the first one who guesses the closest to all the winners will receive the ten dollars.

You intend to pay your subscription anyway, and you may as well pay before the first day of June and have a chance of getting your money back, besides gaining the distinction of knowing more about the political situation than your neighbors.

Each guess will be registered when received as to the exact day, hour and minute. No one will be permitted to see how any one else has guessed. In guessing only the offices on the ballot are to be considered.

FOURTH PRIZE.....5.00
FIFTH PRIZE.....2.50

To the person making the first nearest correct guess of the winners in the Democratic Primary Election, which will be held in Bourbon County on Saturday, June 1st, 1901, the Bourbon Lumber Co. will give $50 in lumber, and the person making second nearest correct guess, $15 in lumber; third nearest correct guess, $7.50 in lumber; fourth nearest correct guess, $5 in lumber; fifth nearest correct guess, $2.50 in lumber. The conditions are these: For every $10 worth of lumber, shingles, etc., bought at one time, entitles the purchaser to one guess.

The contest opens Saturday, March 2, 1901, and closes May 31, 1901. Every guess will be registered at the office of Bourbon Lumber Co. as soon as received, and no one will be allowed to see how anyone else guessed.

Blanks can be had at the office of Bourbon Lumber Co., and only the offices on the blank are to be considered. Our stock is new and our prices are as low as the lowest.

We have on hand a big lot of Michigan White Cedar, White Pine, Red Cedar and Cypress Shingles. Office and yard near L. & N. Freight Depot.

A Sudden Hop.

"Yes, Judge," said the colored brother who was arranged for disturbing the peace, "I reckon I've guilty of what you say. Yes, sah, I had a row wid Elder Bebee of de church, an' mebbe I frowed hom down a leetle too hard, but I had de biggest kind of a provocation. Do you know what that pusion did, sah?"

"I do not, but you may relate."

"Well, sah, I was in my pew in church, an' I was blessin' de Lawd fur his goodness an' about to pray fur rain an' ask dat my lottery ticket hit a thousand dollar prize when de Elder comes along mighty sudden an' hops on to me."

"How hopped?" asked his Honor.

"Jest told me dat he'd dun figured up an' found I owed thirty-seven hundred dollars pew rent an' wanted de bill of it right down in a hunk to buy tar to stop up de cracks in de flesh. I owe dat pew rent, Judge—I owe it, an' I ain't gwine to deny de same—but de suddenness of dat hop jes' took my bref away, and de fast thing I knowed I had de Elder on his back out doans an' wasn't carin' two cents whether de Lawd sent lots of rain or let all de watermillions shrivel up on de vines."

The Rambler

Two simple things will banish care afar. As all the world may plainly see, A man finds solace in a good cigar, And woman in a cup of tea.

This rather curious combination of figures is going on its periodical rounds: Take a piece of paper and write upon it the number representing your age in years, multiply it by two, add 3,800, divide by two, then subtract the number representing your age, and before your eyes you will have something you will never see again.

Were you expecting gentle Spring. In apple blossoms clad, And Winter kept you on the string, Wouldn't it make you mad?

About the only force some people have is the force of habit.

A girl doesn't have to be an athlete to jump at an offer of marriage.

Trying to cut your hair is sheer nonsense.

March is maid of many moods; One day flirting with the duds, Making, the next day as she dies, At the ice man goo-goo eyes.

"I told her mother then she looked as young as her daughter."

"That caught the old lady, I suppose?"

"Yes, but it lost me the daughter."

"What," exclaimed the orator, "what two things are helping mankind to get up in the world?" "The alarm clock and the step ladder," answered the dense person in the rear of the hall.

Orator—Where else will you find in one spot such products as marble, iron, clay, chalk, copper, lead, slate, glass, fruits of all kinds, hemp flax and all manner of grains? Man (in the audience)—In my boy's pocket.

Often when a man is ailing it is the result of too much beer-ing.

The three hundred and fifty detectives in Washington during the inauguration succeeded in rounding up over four hundred crooks, but they utterly failed to take notice of the Fifty-Seventh Congress, which was still in session.

France's Extraordinary Drink.

The Medical Society of France has expressed the opinion that it is necessary to adopt some measure against the alarming spread of petroleum drinking. At first it was thought that this habit had sprung up from the increased taxation on alcohol imposed by the French Government, but an investigation showed that this was not the case; the habit had been prevalent some time previous in certain districts and had spread with great rapidity.

Temptation Too Great.

"Yes, George asked me how old I would be on my next birthday."

"The impudent fellow! Of course you said 19."

"No, I said 26."

"Mercy, girl, you ain't but 24!"

"No, but George is going to give me a glister ring with a diamond in it for every year."

Cheap Insurance.

Many a man has been insured against Bright's disease, diabetes, or other dangerous ailment by a fifty cent bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure. Clark & Kenney.

GAMBLERS FORM TRUST

New York Gamblers Form a Million Dollar Combine.

WINNINGS GO INTO A COMMON POOL

Only Eight Gambling Houses Permitted to Open and Each Only Two Nights a Week—Elaborate Precautions Adopted to Prevent Detectives Getting Into the Room—Fortunes Staked on the Cards.

Gamblers have formed a trust, with a view to elevating the "profession" and putting the business on a pink tea basis in New York, says The Journal of that city. Men who are not in the inner circle will not be allowed to gamble away their fortunes or take chances on breaking the bank. The gamblers' set is even more exclusive than the ultra fashionable clique. It is limited to 300.

This reform is forced by the activity of State Superintendent, Elections McCullagh's spies and is framed to thwart them.

There is $1,000,000 in the "bank roll" of the combine. The limit on play will be removed.

The houses in the combine are located in the following streets: The on West Thirty-first street, two on West Thirty-second street, one on West Thirty-third street, one on West Thirty-fifth street, one on West Thirty-sixth street and one on West Forty-third street.

Under rules of the gambling trust each house will have a "play" two nights in the week. No one but the board of governors is to know where the games are to be run on any particular night.

All the winnings are to go into a common pool. All the faro dealers, lookouts and other "house men" are to be retained. They must report each day for work at the houses where they are employed. They will not know whether or not there is to be any gambling there until the time arrives. This is to prevent leaks.

Only those persons recognized as in good standing in gambling circles will be permitted to play. They are notified each day by messenger.

The cards are innocent looking invitations to a reception on a certain date at such and such club, at such and such street and number. Each card is numbered, and when it is presented the holder must give the name to which it was sent or he will not be admitted. No gambler will be able to gain admission for a friend by vouching for him. In this way they expect to keep out detectives.

Daly's, Kelly's and Canfield's houses refused to enter the combine and will work independently in the same old style.

For the benefit of men who are gamblers, a "crazy rig" of gambling houses in these troublous times stud poker games have been started in several of the Tenderloin hotels, especially those of the class that cater to the prizefighting element.

In one Broadway place the game is conducted on purely professional lines. Practically all the players are book-makers, and fortunes are staked on a card.

In these stud games the regulation table is not used, but a long one of the style so frequently found in libraries and reading rooms. This is done so that the game may be changed into innocent penicible contests on an instant's warning.

New Decoration by France.

In the future Frenchmen who go into the interior of Africa and come out again alive or those who write important books about Africa are, if their efforts are deemed of sufficient honor to France, to be decorated with a special medal. This decoration will at first be conferred upon those who have taken part in the different missions that have been engaged in the center of Africa between Lake Tchad and the High Oubangui. The decoration will be in two classes. The first will be in the form of a gold medal for French officers and men engaged in "Central Africa," and the second, which may be conferred upon foreigners or native troops for "distinguished service," is a silver medal with a similar inscription.

Way to Get Rid of the Thistle.

Much money has been expended in a vain effort to kill out the Canadian thistle. It has now been discovered that the fiber of the same can be used in paper making and, for that matter, in the manufacture of cloth. Instead of trying to eliminate the thistle, says The St. Louis Star, why not cultivate it? Possibly then it might disappear, very much to the chagrin of the would be cultivators.

For a Statue of Nicot.

The French government has just appropriated funds for the erection of a bronze statue of Nicot, who first introduced tobacco into Europe in 1550. It was from his name that the word nicotine was derived. The statue will be situated in front of the main government tobacco manufactory in Paris.

A Valuable Crop.

The region around Plant City, Fla., will ship this season about 400,000 quats of strawberries. The growers expect to receive an average of 15 cents per quart, which would make the crop's value $600,000, certainly a tidy sum for the growers to get.

To Punish by Whipping.

A bill to establish the whipping post as a means of punishment for misdemeanors has been introduced in the Missouri legislature. The specified limits are from 10 to 39 lashes with a rawhide on the bare back.

The stomach controls the situation. Those who are hearty and strong are those who can eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble. This preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. W. T. Brooks.

The lingering cough following gripe calls for One Minute Cough Cure. For all throat and lung troubles this is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Prevents consumption. W. T. Brooks.

Beyond His Ability.

One of our society young ladies was walking down Main street the other day, accompanied by a small black dog which appeared to take a delight in darting from one side of the sidewalk to the other. Several pedestrians narrowly averted a collision with the dog by most amusing (to others) and ungraceful athletic exhibitions. Finally, the heavy foot of a young man, hurrying on the opposite direction, came in violent contact with the dog's ribs and the little animal was sent howling into the gutter. The woman shrieked, and gathered her pet in her arms, pressing her fair cheek against it and murmuring words of pity. The young man blushed, made an awkward bow and stammered:

"I beg your pardon, Miss. Please excuse my awkwardness. If I have killed your dog I'll replace it."

In tones that fairly liquefied the surrounding air the woman retorted: "Indeed, you flatter yourself."

SALE OF SHORTHORNS.—E. K. Thomas' sale of Shorthorns at Kansas City, on the 6th inst., was one of the best of American bred cattle held in years. A few sales, in which a part of the cattle were imported animals, have much larger averages, but probably none in which only home bred cattle were offered. The produce of Mr. Thomas' great Scotch hall, Harrier, are greatly in demand, and command high figures. Mr. Thomas' cattle averaged $271.

Some of the best prices, as reported in the Kansas City Star, were as follows: 28th Mary of Glenwood, $350; 29th Mary of Glenwood, $335; Lady Washington 23d, $420; Fitzhugh Lee, $505; Nora's Secret, $395; Golden Royal, $375; Semperosa of Palo Duro 2d, $350; 30th Mary of Glenwood, $410.

Another report says: Wednesday, there were offered 54 bulls and cows. The herds of Abram Renick, of Winchester, Ky.; E. K. Thomas, of North Middletown, Ky., and O. S. Johnson, of Winchester, were represented. Among the sales were: Fitzhugh Lee, 3-year-old bull, owned by E. K. Thomas; sold to Harry Witten, Trenton, Mo., for $505.

Lady Washington XXIII, heifer, owned by E. K. Thomas; sold to G. M. Casey, Shawnee Mound, Mo., for $420.

Mary of Glenwood XXX, heifer, owned by E. K. Thomas; sold to J. G. Robbins & Son, Horace, Ind., for $400.

LA GRIPPE coughs often continue for months and sometimes lead to fatal results after the patient is supposed to have passed the danger point. Foley's Honey and Tar affords positive protection and security from these coughs.

For a good clean shave and an up-to-date hair cut call at Tom Crawford's new barber shop, located in the old post-office stand. No long waits. (tf)

Mr. J. W. Patterson, night police at Nashville, Ia., says: "In January I had a very bad cold, and was unable to do half dozen different cough medicines and prescriptions from two doctors, but grew worse all the time. I finally bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and after using two-thirds of it, I was entirely cured." Clark & Kenney.
